IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Eligibility for admission

Education background

To be eligible for admission to the PGDM Programmes, the participants must possess a bachelor's equivalent degree, with a minimum of 50% aggregate marks or equivalent in any discipline, from a recognised university in India or abroad (recognised by the UGC / Association of Indian Universities). However, the final selection may be based on a higher cut-off percentage depending on the total number of applicants for the programme. The bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification obtained by the candidate must entail a minimum of three years education, after completing higher secondary schooling under the 10+2 system or equivalent. Candidates appearing in the final year of their bachelor's degree or equivalent are also eligible, provided they furnish proof of meeting the minimum eligibility criteria by September 30, 2018. Candidates who are unable to comply with this requirement are liable to be rejected from the programme. It is desirable that candidates complete all academic requirements before enrolling for the programme to help them keep pace with the rigour and assessment parameters of the programme.

Participant profile

Participants for the PGDM programme may be fresh graduates and/or with relevant work experience from any discipline including Engineering, Humanities, Commerce, Economics, Medicine or any other branch of education.

- The admission fee can be paid through Credit Card/ Debit Card/Bank Transfer through the designated payment gateway. No receipts are to be sent to IMI's Admission Office in such a case.
- Applications complete in all respects, including application fees, should be submitted online by midnight of December 4, 2017. Incomplete forms are liable to be rejected summarily.

Admission Process

Admission Test

CAT

- Admission to the programme is through the Common Admission Test (CAT) conducted by The Indian Institute of Management at different centers all over the country. CAT 2017 would be held on November 26th, 2017 (Refer CAT Bulletin for further details).
- IMI will obtain the test scores from the IIM for those candidates who have appeared in the CAT examination and have also applied to IMI for the PGDM programmes.
- IIMs have no role either in the selection process or in the conduct of the programme

GMAT

- Foreign students, PIO and NRI sponsored candidates are also eligible, based on their GMAT scores, provided they have taken the GMAT test not earlier than January 2016 and not later than 20th January 2018.
- Indian residents who have appeared for GMAT, not earlier than January 2016 and not later than 20th January 2018 are also eligible to apply.
- Candidates will be required to furnish their GMAT scores while applying and provide a self-attested copy of the GMAT score sheet to the Admission Office for verification at the time of personal interview. GMAT scores without the above document will not be accepted and the application may be summarily rejected.

XAT

- Valid only for PGDM (Bhubaneswar & Kolkata Campus)
- Candidates with a valid XAT score are eligible to apply. The XAT is usually conducted on the first Sunday of January.

CMAT

- Valid only for PGDM (Bhubaneswar Campus)
- Candidates with a valid CMAT score are eligible to apply. The CMAT is usually conducted twice a year during September and February.

Selection Process

Shortlisting Criteria

Candidates who have appeared for the CAT 2017 examination or furnished valid GMAT score and have applied to IMI, New Delhi will be shortlisted on the basis of information provided in the application form, CAT scores or GMAT score, educational background, marks in 10th, 12th, graduation and work experience, if any. Only shortlisted candidates will be called for the final stage of the selection process.

Applicants should note that mere fulfillment of minimum eligibility criteria may not ensure consideration for shortlisting by IMI, New Delhi. IMI, New Delhi will not entertain any correspondence on this subject and decisions of the IMI Admissions Committee will be final in all matters.

Selection criteria

Past academic performance in graduation, class XII & X, Psychometric Test, Personal Interview besides other qualitative parameters, will constitute the core components of the final stage of the selection process. The IMI, New Delhi Admission Committee reserves the right to modify these components while communicating these to the applicants at the Personal Interview stage. The overall objective will be to identify and assess the candidate's potential for a managerial career.

Company sponsored Candidates:

IMI, New Delhi accepts applications from Company sponsored candidates, within the approved strength of the programme. These candidates will also be assessed as per the selection process described above.

Candidates being sponsored by their respective companies must submit a letter from the sponsoring organisation, to this effect and undertake to pay all fees and dues from time to time, during the complete duration of the programme. This letter/undertaking will be required to be submitted at the Personal Interview stage.

Candidates who are sponsored by their organisation will not be eligible for receiving any placement assistance from the Institute's placement cell.

The fee structure for such candidates is given separately along with the fee structure for general candidates.

Based on the short listing, applicants will be called for a Personal Interview to assess their suitability for the Programme. Interviews will be held during February/March 2018 (tentative).

Interview Centers

Besides Delhi, the selection process will be conducted at other centers including Ahmedabad, Bangalore, Bhopal, Bhubaneswar, Chandigarh, Chennai, Dehradun, Guwahati, Hyderabad, Jaipur, Kochi, Kolkata, Mumbai, Pune and Varanasi,. Candidates should indicate their first and second preference of interview center in the application form. If a candidate's preferred center is not allotted, for any reason, the candidate will be informed of the change. IMI reserves the right to change any of the centers for the selection process, without assigning any reasons.

Admission Offer

Admission offer will be based on a composite score arrived after the assessment has been made during the various stages of the selection process, defined above. The result will be announced through an Admission Portal and will be notified on the IMI, New Delhi. Website Applicants are advised to check the updates on the website at regular intervals. Offer letters will thereafter be dispatched, to the mailing address provided in the application form as also by email. Applicants are advised to provide their complete postal address and active email ID which should be valid up to 30th June 2018 for receiving important communications. Successful candidates, who have been offered admission, will be required to pay the first installment of fee within one week of the date of offer, failing which the offer shall lapse and admission will be offered to the next candidate on the waiting list, without any further intimation. IMI, New Delhi will not accept any responsibility for non-receipt of any communication which is sent to the candidate's mailing address and email ID provided in the Admission Application form.

Withdrawal and refund policy

As per AICTE rules, in the event of an applicant withdrawing before the starting of the programme, the wait listed candidates would be given admission against the vacant seat. In such a case the entire fee collected from the student, after a deduction of the processing fee of Rs.1000/- (Rupees one thousand only), shall be refunded and returned to the candidate withdrawing from the programme. However, should a student leave the programme after commencement of the course and if the seat consequently falling vacant is not filled by another candidate, for whatever reason, only the refundable components of fee shall be returned to the candidate.
